Q.2 A)

Background:

Jeevan Jyot Charitable Trust was established in 2017 with the objective of promoting education and healthcare in rural areas of Maharashtra. The trust is registered under the Bombay Public Trust Act, 1950. It operates free health check-up camps, provides scholarships to underprivileged students, and has recently initiated a digital literacy campaign in tribal areas. The trust receives donations from individuals and corporate CSR funds. It is managed by a board of 5 trustees who meet quarterly to review activities and approve expenditures. During the financial year 2024–25, the trust received ₹1.2 crore in donations and spent ₹95 lakhs on various projects. The remaining funds were invested in fixed deposits.

Recently, during the audit, it was noticed that one of the trustees had approved a purchase from a vendor where his relative is a partner, raising concerns over conflict of interest. The audit also revealed delays in filing annual returns to the Charity Commissioner.

Q1. What are the key legal and financial compliance requirements for a charitable trust registered under the Bombay Public Trust Act, 1950? (4)

Q2. Identify and explain the ethical issue highlighted in the above case related to the trustee's conduct. (4)

Q3. Suggest measures to improve transparency and accountability in the functioning of Jeevan Jyot Charitable Trust. (4)

Q.2) B)

Background:

Sunrise Sports Club was established in 2005 in Navi Mumbai to promote indoor and outdoor sports among youth and local residents. It is a non-profit organization registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860. The club has over 500 active members and offers facilities for badminton, table tennis, swimming, and cricket coaching.

The club charges annual membership fees and also organizes paid coaching camps and tournaments. It maintains separate accounts for membership income, coaching fees, and sponsorships. For FY 2024-25, the club's income was ₹60 lakhs, while its expenses amounted to ₹52 lakhs, including maintenance, salaries of coaches, and sports equipment.

During a routine internal audit, it was observed that cash collection records for coaching fees were not properly maintained. Also, there were delays in depositing cash into the bank, and duplicate receipts were found in the register. The committee members were advised to implement proper internal control systems.

- Q1. Identify and explain two internal control weaknesses mentioned in the above case. (4)
- Q2. What accounting records should a sports club maintain to ensure transparency and accountability? (4)
- Q3. Suggest steps that the Sunrise Sports Club can take to improve financial discipline and prevent misuse of funds. (4)
